- The Boutique is currently updating its website to improve the navigation, visual, content, etc. and the changes are planned to be completed in July. In a nutshell, these changes will provide our clients with a better online experience.

A Special Chakra and not well known!

In the past year, the Boutique has written on the major Chakras via our newsletter or via the Natural Presence magazine. This month, the Boutique would like to talk about a very special Chakra. Known by few as the "Gate of Love". It is not considered a major nor a minor chakra but plays a significant role in allowing one to give and receive love with pure intention. The position of this chakra is between the Heart and the Throat chakras and directs the flow of universal energy in the hands. In a nutshell, it is a key element in the power the touch!

Malfunctioning of this chakra restrict/prevent one from being in a state of Love (human, nature, etc.). Some of the key areas that could be affected when this chakra is in a state-of-shock:

- 1. Deception with relationship(s)
- 2. inability to openly receive or give love
- 3. Difficulty in loving yourself
- 4. Inability to create own vision/needs to copy from others
- 5. Confused intentions
- 6. Other

Testimonial

What a gift to have met Marc and Jacinthe. In a difficult moment in my life and having all in hand for being happy, you knew which books to suggest and your advice regarding my strong emotions were key. What an oasis of peace your Boutique. We are always welcome with a wonderful smile from Jacinthe and the positive energy of Marc. You taught me so much Marc and you help me in my spiritual development so I could open myself day after day. Jacinthe thank you for your advices regarding stones and crystals and meditation items. You are both people from the heart as they should be more everywhere. What a chance to have met you both! Now I see life with a renewed vision and a positive attitude.
